

"For Our Kids" - Deborah Maddison and Eugenea Couture, Canadian activists from British Columbia, will join Bill Murray to lead this evening's discussion about the Rights of Children and Families in North America. ~~ TONIGHT'S TOPIC: "Deadly Secrets" ~~ Tamara Fabre's murder at the hands of her own father was all over the news, and because of the extensive coverage you may think you know what happened. But the real truth is about to unfold as Tamara's sister, Tracy Fabre, finally reveals what went on behind closed doors. Hers is an unbelievable story which started over 50 years before, with a mother and seven children locked in a house of horrors, suffering unspeakable abuse .. while nobody dared to break the silence. An entire community turned a blind eye as a psychopathic father was able to torture and control his children for over half a century, until it finally culminated in the brutal murder of his own daughter. Tonight on a very special edition of the "For Our Kids" show we'll have Tracy Fabre, Tamara's sister, coming forward and breaking the silence with the truth behind the media spotlight. Her story is one of survival, courage and unbelievable strength, and one you definitely need to hear.
